

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

Summary Statement: The University and its students must maintain appropriate conditions for learning. The pursuit of higher education for the development of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the well-balanced development of students, and the common good of society are goals we live by at ESU. With that, the University must make provisions for the attainment of these goals. In so doing, the University must accept its social and legal responsibilities to the nation, the Commonwealth, the local community, and to all constituents of the academic community.

Within the university, freedom to learn is the student’s most basic freedom and a primary concern of the entire academic community. The student should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment, to engage in a sustained and independent search for knowledge and truth, and to attain professional competence. The freedom to learn depends upon maintaining appropriate opportunities and conditions not only in the classroom, but also on the campus and in the local community.

The primary purpose of this document is to establish expectations related to conduct of all student members of the University community, as well as the rights that are to be afforded to students and student organizations. As a reminder, East Stroudsburg University seeks cooperation in establishing an academic and work environment that is free from discrimination and harassment against any person because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or veteran’s status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

I. Definition of Terms

These people or group are trained individuals representing the University community, or are hired by or contracted with the university to serve in this capacity, that hear the facts of a student conduct matter from all involved parties and witnesses. Based on the facts, the people or group determines a decision of “responsible” or “not responsible” and determines appropriate educational sanctions when required. In matters related to academic integrity, at least one person on the panel must be a faculty member. The faculty union (APSCUF) shall appoint a minimum of five faculty members and up to a maximum of ten faculty members to the University Conduct Board.

In matters involving allegations of the Title IX policy on sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, students will not be selected to serve as panel members. In these matters, University Conduct Board members are selected from a pool of members who have been trained in the University’s Sexual Misconduct Resolution Process, or are members from an external organization who are qualified to serve in this capacity. For these matters, the University Conduct Board members serve as Decision Makers. The office of Student Conduct and Community Standards/designee may approve or institute the following interim actions without a hearing:

No Contact Directive

A written directive issued by Student Conduct and Community Standards restricting or prohibiting contact between individuals, and may also include other restrictions. A No Contact Directive is not an indication of responsibility for a violation of University policy; rather, it is intended to protect students while an alleged incident is reviewed through the student conduct process. The No Contact Directive remains in effect until a determined date, or through the outcome of the student conduct process.

Interim Removal from University Housing/Residence Halls

A student who is notified of an interim removal from University housing must immediately relocate from on-campus housing to an off-campus location. The student is prohibited from entering or visiting the residential portion of any campus residence hall or apartment during the interim removal period. The student may attend classes and University activities unless otherwise restricted from such activities. Students currently on an educational sanction of Deferred Housing Suspension are likely to be placed on interim removal from University housing if there are any additional referrals alleging violations of community standards or significant violations of the Residential Life and Housing Policy Booklet. Students removed on an interim basis from University housing are not eligible for any refunds.

Interim Restriction/s

The student may be temporarily restricted from a specified activity or from specified University property, as deemed appropriate by the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards based on the alleged conduct being reviewed through the student conduct process. Interim Restriction may include temporary loss of ability to participate in a specified group/student organization activities. Interim Restriction may also include temporary restriction of ability to access specified University Property.

Interim Suspension

When there is reason to believe that a student presents an immediate and significant threat to the safety and well-being of other persons and/or property, an interim suspension may be imposed pending the formal disposition of the disciplinary case. A decision to impose an interim suspension is made by the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.

The Director for the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards/designee will meet with the student to discuss the interim suspension and the formal hearing process. A hearing on the Interim Suspension will be convened within ten (10) business days, unless unanticipated circumstances make adherence to this time frame infeasible. The student may choose to have the Director or designee settle the case if possible during the Interim Suspension hearing. This would include the student entering into mutual resolution with SCCS and waiving their right, in writing, to a Formal Hearing. The student may accept the decision with all educational sanctions, in writing, following the Interim Suspension hearing or up to the hour before the Formal Hearing. If the student does not attend the Interim Suspension Hearing, a Formal Hearing will be scheduled and the Interim Suspension will remain in place until the results of the Formal Hearing.

Interim Student Group/Organization Restriction/s

The student group/organization is prohibited from conducting specified activities, events, meetings or social functions during the student conduct process. This may also include restrictions such as a group/organizational No Contact Directive, loss of ability to use group/organization funds, or other restrictions deemed appropriate based on the alleged conduct reviewed through the student conduct process.

Interim Student Group/Organization Suspension

A written directive issued to recognized student groups/organizations directing the group to cease all operations until further notice. The group/organization may not conduct business, hold meetings, host events, attend events as a group, or continue with any philanthropic activities until further notice. Notices of an Interim Student Group/Organization Suspension will be sent to the group/organization President and the group's Advisor, if known. Any requests for exceptions must be communicated to the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards in writing. A letter from the group/organization's National Headquarters, if associated, must also accompany the request for exception. If the group/organization does not have, or is not associated with, a National Headquarters it is recommended that their request is accompanied by a letter from their group/organization advisor.

The Director for the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards/designee will meet with the student group/organization representative to discuss the interim suspension and the formal hearing process. A hearing on the Student Group/Organization's Interim Suspension will be convened within ten (10) business days, unless unanticipated circumstances make adherence to this time frame infeasible. The student may choose to have the Director or designee settle the case if possible during the Interim Suspension hearing. This would include the student group/organization entering into mutual resolution with SCCS and waiving their right, in writing, to a Formal Hearing. The student group/organization may accept the decision with all educational sanctions, in writing, following the Interim Suspension hearing or up to the hour before the Formal Hearing. If the student group/organization representative does not attend the Interim Suspension Hearing, a Formal Hearing will be scheduled and the Interim Suspension will remain in place until the results of the Formal Hearing.

IX. Procedural Due Process/Stages of the Conduct Process (Non-Sexual Misconduct Matters)

The conduct process for a student or student organization begins when SCCS receives a referral of a potential violation of the Student Code of Conduct or local, state, or federal law. The referral is reviewed by SCCS and notice is sent to the student/student organization concerning the nature of the violation reported, date and location of incident, and asking the student/student organization to meet with a member of SCCS or designee.

1. Receipt of Referral: SCCS receives a referral that is filed within a reasonable amount of time following the discovery of the alleged violation and no later than three (3) months after the discovery, except in extraordinary cases or cases involving allegations of serious misconduct. In certain cases, the SCCS may waive the time period for filing alleged violations of community standards after making a finding in writing that waives the time period for filing is in the best interest of the University.

A referral may be initiated by a student, faculty member, University Police personnel, staff member, office personnel, or interested party to the University. The Director of SCCS or designee may request information concerning prior misconduct of the student from the University Police and other appropriate persons or offices.

SCCS will then send the student notice of the referral through either (1) a Notice of Alleged Violations Letter informing the student of the process, or (2) an Interim Suspension Letter informing the student of the alleged violations of community standards and Interim Suspension Process. A Notice of Alleged Violations Letter may include Interim Actions other than an Interim Suspension. This notice will be sent to the student's official university email account. For student groups/organizations, this notice will be sent to the official university email account of the presiding officer of the organization (President).

2. Resolution Options: The University conducts meetings for students involved in incidents that may require disciplinary action. A member of the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards or designee will meet with the student for a Conduct Conference to review all alleged violations of community standards, pertinent information to the incident and formal hearing options. Unless otherwise specified in this document, the student has the right to choose from the following options:

a. Option One: Mutual Resolution through Conduct Conference:

This is an informal meeting conducted by a member of SCCS/designee. This meeting is intended to apprise the party of the information contained in the referral, discuss the alleged violations of community standards, and potential outcomes. Students are given the opportunity to explain their involvement in the incident and admit to some/all responsibility for the violations. If a mutual agreement is reached, the student will sign a form waiving their right to a formal hearing and their right to an appeal. The conduct conference, which is not recorded, is adjudicated by the Student Conduct and Community Standards/designee. The student and the adjudicator will review all information concerning the alleged violation and the student will speak on their own behalf. After the conduct conference, the adjudicator may reach one of the following decisions and send the decision in an Outcome Letter:

1. Student is responsible;
 2. Case dismissed due to student not being responsible; or
 3. Case continued pending further investigation by the hearing officer.
- b. Option Two: Formal Hearing with an Administrative Hearing Officer or the University Conduct Board:

This is a formal hearing before either one Administrative Hearing Officer or the University Conduct Board (UCB). The UCB is a panel consisting of students and faculty/staff, but for cases falling within Title IX regulations, the panel will not include student board members. Students may bring witnesses who have knowledge of the incident to this hearing. Students also have an appeal option after a formal hearing. At the conclusion of the Formal Hearing, the adjudicating body has up to five (5) business days to reach a decision.

When circumstances arise (e.g., staffing constraints or a particularly complex matter), additional time may be required to issue a decision. If additional time is needed, that will be communicated to the Referred Student(s). In cases of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment, the Complainant will also be notified of the delay.

Once a decision is reached, the decision will be sent in the form of an Outcome Letter to the student's official university email address. If SCCS does not receive an appeal from the student within five (5) business days from the date of Outcome Letter, it will be understood that the student accepts the decision as final, waives their right to appeal, and all educational sanctions will be effective.

If the Referred Student(s) fail(s) to attend the Conduct Conference or does not respond to the requests concerning the alleged matter, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. A letter will be sent to the Referred Student informing them of the hearing date/time.

Prior to a formal hearing, a student may make an appointment to review any file information related to the alleged violations of community standards. At a formal hearing, the student or representative(s) of the organization may be advised and accompanied (but not represented) by an Advisor, such as a member of the University community or by legal counsel procured at the student's expense. The advisor may only consult and interact privately with the student. The decision rendered by the Administrative Hearing Officer or UCB during a formal hearing shall be based solely upon the evidence/information presented in the hearing. This is a recorded hearing where witnesses may be called to provide information. The student's witness(es) must have pertinent information to the case. (Character witnesses are not permitted.) If, during a hearing, additional violations are brought to light, new alleged violations of community standards may be filed and a new hearing may be scheduled.

- c. Option Three, if offered by SCCS: Conflict Resolution Session/s: When appropriate and agreeable to all students involved, a conflict resolution process may be conducted in lieu of an adjudication of Code of Conduct violations. The Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards/designee will determine when this process may be an option. At the conclusion of the Conflict Resolution process, an Outcome Letter will be sent to all involved parties.

X. Decision

All decisions of the Administrative Hearing Officer, Adjudicator, Hearing Officer, or University Conduct Board are final after the appeal process has been exhausted, for all educational sanctions up to and including expulsion.

XI. Appeals of Formal Hearings

Appeals are decided by the Vice President for Campus Life and Inclusive Excellence/designee for non-academic cases, the Provost/designee for Academic Integrity Cases, or the President/designee in cases that result in Expulsion.

Appeals must be made in writing by the student and submitted/delivered to the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards within five (5) business days after the decision of the hearing. Upon receipt of the written appeal, the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards will submit the appeal to the designated individual and defer the imposition of the sanction(s) pending the decision on the appeal. Appeals must be based on:

- a) Lack of procedural due process;
- b) Lack of substantial evidence to support the decision;
- c) New evidence that was not previously available that could substantially change the nature of the case; or
- d) Severity of sanctions only if the sanction resulted in one or more of the following: loss of eligibility to live in and/or visit University-owned/operated housing, suspension, and/or expulsion.

If the appeal meets one of the categories listed above, it will be reviewed by the designated individual and the following may be recommended:

- a) Uphold the decision;
- b) Alter the decision and/or sanction that has been imposed;
- c) Return the matter to the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards with instructions for re-adjudication relative to specific issues; or
- d) Overrule the decision and dismiss the case.

Decisions on appeal will be rendered by the Vice President, Provost or President within ten (10) business days, unless justifiable circumstances make adherence to this time frame infeasible.

The decision of the Vice President, Provost, or President is considered final university action. There is no other appeal process.

XII. Cases Within the Sexual Misconduct (Title IX) Policy

Additional procedural requirements for cases involving alleged violations of the Sexual Misconduct (Title IX) Policy (see also: Sexual Misconduct \(Title IX\) Policy):

1. All incidents of sexual misconduct and sexual harassment must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator. Follow-up investigation may result in pursuit of the case through the Sexual Misconduct Resolution Process, the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, University Police and/or local police in both or either jurisdiction. The Complainant has the right not to report sexual misconduct to University Police and/or local police if they choose.
2. Formal Hearings for student Respondents within the Sexual Misconduct Resolution Process will be coordinated by Student Conduct and Community Standards. Notice will be sent by Student Conduct and Community Standards and no less than ten (10) business days prior to the Formal Hearing.
3. Retaliation against any individual on the basis of a good faith report made by such individual, and/or on the basis of that individual's participation in an investigation, hearing, and/or final outcome of the sex discrimination resolution process is contrary to the community standards and is strictly prohibited under this Code of Conduct.
4. Both the Respondent and Complainant have the right to have one Advisor of their choice present at all steps of the process including the Formal Hearing. The Advisor may include a parent, guardian, or attorney (at the party's personal expense). The Advisor may confer with the Respondent or Complainant, but may not speak on the party's behalf. The Advisor is allowed to conduct the cross examination on behalf of the party in the formal hearing for cases within the Sexual Misconduct Resolution Process.
5. Both the Respondent and Complainant may have character witnesses present on their behalf at the formal hearing.
6. Both the Respondent and Complainant have the right to be informed of the outcome of the hearing in writing. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, the outcome of the Formal Hearing will be issued within ten (10) business days after the completion of the hearing. Both parties will be notified if there is a delay in the issuance of an outcome letter.
7. Student Respondents and Complainants, have the right to appeal the outcome of a Formal Hearing on the following grounds:
 - 1) A procedural irregularity under the University policy or procedures that more likely than not affected the hearing outcome.
 - 2) New evidence that was not reasonably available through the exercise of reasonable diligence at the time of the hearing or dismissal of the Formal Complaint that more likely than not could affect the outcome of the matter.

3) The Title IX Coordinator, Investigator(s), or Decision Maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against an individual party, or for or against complainants or respondents in general, that more likely than not affected the outcome of the matter.

4) The Disciplinary Sanction imposed was arbitrary or capricious or the appropriateness of the sanction. (If appealing under this category, the other Party will be given 5 days to respond to the Disciplinary Sanctions basis of appeal after being notified of the appeal.)

Appeals to the outcome of a Formal Hearing must be submitted in writing to Student Conduct and Community Standards within five (5) business days.

Appeals submitted for cases falling under the Sexual Misconduct (Title IX) Policy will be decided by the Vice President of Administration and Accreditation/designee or by the President/designee in cases that result in expulsion. Decisions on appeal will be rendered within ten (10) business days, unless unanticipated circumstances make adherence to this time frame infeasible. Parties will be notified if unanticipated circumstances arise and a decision is delayed. The appeal decision is considered final university action. There is no other appeal process.

The following are possible educational sanctions for cases falling under the Sexual Misconduct (Title IX) Policy:

- Official warning for one semester

XIII. Provision for Amendments

This document is reviewed annually by the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards in consultation with University Legal Counsel. When time and staffing permit, a committee of students, faculty and administrators will periodically review this document and suggest changes to the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.

XIV. Disclosure of Discipline Records and Records Retention

Disclosure of Discipline Records:

All students' disciplinary records are kept in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 (the "Buckley Amendment"), 20 U.S.C. 1232g. In accordance with these provisions, all disciplinary files are confidential and may only be disclosed:

- Records may also be disclosed to the following individuals without consent of the student:
 - To the parents of a dependent student (as defined by the Internal Revenue Service);
 - To the parents or guardians of a student under the age of 21 who has been found responsible, or accepted responsibility for an alcohol or drug violation. In such instances, the parents/guardians may be notified of the violation(s) unless the student shows proof of independent status. The student will have five (5) business days from the date of the Outcome letter to show such evidence.
 - To a court official, agency, or other designated individual in order to comply with a subpoena or court order served upon the University. When served with a subpoena or court order, the University will notify the student in writing that it is complying with the court order, unless otherwise required by the court order.

- To others within the University with a legitimate need to know and for compliance with other University policies and reports.

Consistent with the Sexual Misconduct (Title IX) Policy, the University will disclose the outcome of the Formal Hearing through the Sexual Misconduct Resolution Process to both the Complainant and the Respondent. The University may also disclose the results of a disciplinary proceeding brought against the alleged perpetrator to the alleged complainant of any crime of violence, as that term is defined in 18 U.S.C. 16.

Records Retention:

All disciplinary records are the property of the office of Student Conduct and Community Standards. The office will maintain these records for 7 years from the date of graduation, or the last date of enrollment if the student did not graduate. All records related to student group conduct will be kept in the student group's official file indefinitely and the group outcomes may be shared or published at the University's discretion. Records involving expulsions are kept indefinitely.
